MISSING PERSON AT RISK

LOCATED 9/23/07

(San Diego) At about 10 a.m., today Robert Charisse, 67, walked away from an adult day care facility at 11000 Camino Ruiz in Mira Mesa. Charisse has the mental capacity of a 6 or 7 year old child, is schizophrenic and takes medication for a heart condition. Charisse said he wanted to go to UTC or to the beach. A color photo of Charisse can be found on page two of this release.

Northeastern Division patrol officers have been searching for him since about 11 a.m. when they received the notification. Charisse is a white male, possibly wearing sunglasses or dark prescription glasses, 5' 6" tall, about 160 lbs, balding on top and gray hair on the side and a moustache. He was wearing a light brown polo-style shirt and brown pants. All officers in the city have been notified of this missing person.

Security officers at UTC have been notified as well as the Metropolitan Transit System operators. If you have information as to the whereabouts of Charisse, please contact SDPD immediately at (619) 531-2000.
